Quotes "First released in Australia this album is by one of that countries leading singer songwriter guitarists and is now available in the UK. The album comprises of 13 tracks ranging from a no -nonsense delta blues style to sophisticated instrumentals with cello, fiddle and harmonica; offered on an even mix of songs and instrumentals. First impressions are one of tremendous musicianship, whether it is the skilled slide playing on the blues tracks or the crisp precision on the contemporary pieces. Pete has a mastery of the guitar, which allows him to create the most delicate of moods. A rich smooth voice this album is a pleasure, but it is the guitar which lifts this album into the realms of the exceptional." - Jim Hancock - UK Folktalk

"It is a comment on Pete Hawkes that many of his songs are reminiscent of the great Nick Drake and John Martyn in their heydey. Secrets Vows and Lies is an outstanding recording" - Bruce Elder.

Albums

Secrets, Vows & Lies © 2007 Pete Hawkes

Warm and thoughtful, well-composed modern folk songs fitting equally into adult contemporary and mainstream folk. Accomplished Folk Blues, reminiscent of Nick/Drake at their best, this album was widely acclaimed around the world after its initial release on Festival Records. Reprinted now several times, the latest including a new song 'if time was an ocean' and a great version of Mr Bojangles.

Guest stars Dave Swarbrick (ex Fairport) and Phil Emmanuel. Includes the hit song 'A Housewife's Lament' - Review, Dirty Linnen
